My partner and I reside on [REDACTED] in [REDACTED] While our property was not directly impacted the apartments across the road from us experienced flooding in the carpark and the elevators were out of order for several days. The elevators are of utmost importance for those with limited mobility. We dropped off groceries to an elderly lady who had gone three days without being able to leave her apartment due to this issue. Community planning took into account the racecourse being a floodplain and as such adversely impacted the neighbourhood.
